Rome, May 31. N. S.

THE Pope removed on the 26th Inſtant from the Vatican to his Palace at Monte Cavallo, where he deſigns to continue the remaining part of the Summer. The 28th he gave Audience, as uſual, to the Foreign Miniſters. That day he ſent an Expreſs to the Cardinal Legate of of Ferrara, with Orders (as is reported) to notify to the Commanders both of the Imperial and of the French Forces which are in his Dominions, that they ſhould retire from thence within 8 days, on pain of Excommunication. A Courier, whom the Pope had ſent to the French Court with ſome Letters in favour of the Duke of Modena, praying that he may be reſtored to the Enjoyment of his Dutchy, is returned, with an Anſwer which gives but little Satisfaction, the French inſiſting upon Conditions ſo hard, that the Duke cannot comply with them; and it is ſaid his Highneſs, expecting but little Benefit by this Negociation, intends ſhortly to return to Bologne. The Pope has ſent freſh Inſtructions to his Nuncio in Poland, to leave no means unattempted of reconciling that King with the Cardinal Primate, and others of his Subjects. Orders are ſent to Civita Vecchia for the Pope's Gallies to be in a readineſs to put to Sea, being appointed to cruize off of our Coaſts; and ſeveral Companies of Foot, which are to be put on board them, will march from hence in a day or two. The Gallies of Naples being ſent out to cruize in the Adriatick Gulph, for the Security of the Veſſels trading to that Kingdom, which have of late been very much diſturbed by the Privateers fitted out at Segna, and in other Ports thereabouts belonging to the Emperor, are put into Ancona, whither ſome French Frigats are alſo come, which are employed in the ſame Service.

Venice, June 7. Several Men of War and other Ships are fitting out here, to be ſent with Supplies of Stores and Ammunition for the Gariſons belonging to this State in the Levant; Four Companies of Foot are come from Verona and Legnago, and are to be ſent thither on board this Convoy. Orders are alſo given for ſome of our Gallies to put to Sea, which are to cruize in the Gulph for the Security of our Coaſts, and 120 Gally-Slaves have lately been brought hither from Terra Firma, in order to their being put on board them. Our Letters from Oſtiglia confirm, That the Marquis Davia, who had been ſent towards Trent with a Party of Horſe to meet 600 German Recrits which were coming from thence, is returned with them to Oſtiglia, where they daily expect 4 or 5000 more, with Supplies of Ammunition and other Neceſſaries. The Grand Prior marched lately from Mantua with a Body of 6000 French Forces and 2000 of the Militia of that Country, with intent to have beſieged Oſtiglia; but finding it impracticable, he encamped near Sarovalla, and has ſent out a ſtrong Detachment to attack Ponte Molino. The Imperialiſts and the French, upon the Pope's earneſt Sollicitation, had both promiſed to withdraw their Forces out of his Territories, and accordingly they had on both ſides begun to march out of the Ferrareſe; but the French having ſent back a great number of their Men to la Stellata, a Village in that Province, and having begun to fortify it, a Body of Imperialiſts returned likewiſe to Figuarolo, on the other ſide of the Po, and raiſed a Battery of 10 Pieces of Cannon over-againſt the Intrenchments which the Enemy was making, whom they obliged by their continual Fire to give over that Work, and to abandon the Place. The Imperialiſts frequently ſend out Parties from Oſtiglia, and their other Quarters, to make Excurſions into the Dutchy of Mantua, who ſeldom fail of bringing home a conſiderable Booty.

Hambourg, June 20. Letters from Berlin ſay. That General Fleming was gone from thence to Saxony, in order to command a Body of Forces which is drawing together in that Electorate, to the number of 16000 Men, who are to march through Sileſia to the King of Poland's Aſſiſtance, and that moſt of them are already arrived at Garlitz, the Place appointed for their Rendezvous. The King of Denmark embarked at Flalſtrand the 31ſt paſt, and is gone over to Norway to viſit that Kingdom. They write from Stockholm, that a conſiderable number of Soldiers has lately been ſent from that Place and from Carelſcron, to recruit the King of Sweden's Army in Poland.

Dartmouth, June 20. Her Majeſty's Ships the Southampton and Haſtings ſailed the 18th Inſtant from Torbay, with divers light Colliers bound for Wales under their Convoy; but are all put back to Torbay by contrary Winds. This day was ſent into that Bay a Brigantine belonging to New England, which was taken 3 days ago by a French Privateer, and has ſince been retaken by one of Her Majeſty's Ships.

Yarmouth, June 21. The 20th Inſtant in the morning ſailed out of our Road about 150 Sail of light Colliers for Newcaſtle, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ships the Aſſiſtance and Queenborough; and in the afternoon ſailed hence likewiſe to the Northward two outward-bound Fleets of Merchant Men, making together about 100 Sail, under Convoy of ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships. Yeſterday came into our Road many light Colliers from the Southward, and this day came hither ſeveral more; as did alſo Her Majeſty's Ship the Rocheſter's Prize, having a Fleet of Coaſters under her Convoy, bound for Hull, which do
